25X1 Airfield of LEIPZIG-MOCKAU8 June 1949

1. a. Repair work, excavation work (fuel tank installations or drainage facilities?) in the southwestern corner, and the construction of boundary lights at the southern border indicated the intention of a renewed occupation of the LEIPZIG-MOCKAU airfield (W 52/0 21). The landing field, runways and taxiways were serviceable on 8 June 1949 but the field was not occupied. There was no flying.

17 June 1949

2. The LEIPZIG-MOCKAU airfield was not occupied by a Soviet air unit on 4, 10, and 17 June 1949. A company of the German People's Police did close order drill at the airfield on 17 June 1949.

3. Comment:

Repair on airfield buildings was reported on 18 May 1949. This work indicates the possibility of a renewed occupation of this field.
